Day 02: Bangkok – Full Day Sightseeing By Public Transportations

Breakfast at the hotel

Our local guide will meet you at the hotel's lobby at 8am. The day's experience starts with a ride on the city's BTS Skytrain. Arrive close to the Chao Phraya Pier and board the Chao Phraya Tourist boat a pleasant two-layer catamaran giving phenomenal perspectives.

The boat stops close the notorious Wat Pho and the Grand Palace. Spend the rest of the morning exploring these two striking sights, finding out about the country's grand history and of the deep-rooted spiritual traditions of its people. Visit to the Royal Grand Palace, the nation's landmark and most praised royal monument in Thailand, with the enclosed and dazzling Wat Phra Kaew is a must. Wat Phra Kaew, also called the Temple of the Emerald Buddha, is well known for its Golden Chedi, its Pantheon of the Chakri Kings and its Eight Colored Tower. In Thailand, it is considered by many to be a living example of a classical Siamese Court, being the former residence of the kings of Thailand. Then short walk to visit Wat Pho is regarded as the first center of public education and is sometimes called 'Thailand's first university'. Mural paintings, inscriptions, and statues found in the temple educated people on various subjects such as literature, warfare, archaeology, astronomy, geology, meditation and is considered to be home of Thai traditional massages. Lunch is at a local restaurant.

Experience an afternoon trip along the bustling Chao Phraya River and the quiet Thonburi Canals (Klong) in a long tail boat, in which you can enjoy scenes of Bangkok life. We will bring you to a more traditional and serene way of living around Thonburi residential areas, away from all the skyscrapers and modern buildings of Bangkok City Centre. We will also stop by the "Temple of Dawn" (officially named Wat Arun). An ancient temple dating back to the Ayutthaya period with the imposing Khmer-style prang or tower is 104 meters tall with steep decorate with the multihued floral mosaics from broken Chinese porcelain that was used as ballast by boats coming from China. Today the temple is one of Bangkok's most iconic structures, with most remarkable visual identities on the bank of Chao Phraya River.

Then board Tuk Tuk, this world-famous three-wheel motorized open-air vehicle to visit Wat Saket (The Golden Mount), this Landmark on the only hill in Bangkok, is of great significance for all followers of The Lord Buddha. 320 stairs take you up to the top for panoramic views of the Rattanakosin Island. Then take Tuk Tuk and/or BTS Skytrain back to your hotel.

Day 03: Bangkok – Half Day Jungle Bike Tour Join-In

Breakfast at the hotel.

We start by picking you up at your Bangkok Hotel 09:00 AM

Our guide who waits for you at the temple of Wat Klong Toey Nok, from where you will board our longtail boat and our boat operator take you by ferry you across to — Bang Kra Jao that's on the opposite bank. At our bike tour shop, we will do a fitting for your premium quality bicycle and helmet and the Bangkok jungle bike tour start!

Bangkok's green lung is a place to get a real dose of nature, it's a calming natural space in the middle of one of the world's more chaotic cities. Escape yourself in Bangkok surrounded by tranquility. Bang Kra Jao houses local communities, languid wonderland of stilt houses and gardens, temples, and markets, as well as a variety of wildlife.

Stop At: Sri Nakhon Khuean Khan Park and Botanical Garden. When it comes to cycling through the nature in Bangkok, Sri Nakhon Khuean Khan Park and the Botanical Gardens. There's an abundance of natural features to enjoy here, from pretty flowers to scenic water features such as ponds and lakes, that provide a taste of what one could expect from Thailand's amazing national parks.

Stop At: Bangkok Tree House, further enroute we bike around the small elevated pathways where we pass by many local stilt houses bamboo forests, fruit orchards and waterways. We make a visit to Bangkok Treehouse, a smart, self-contained, wood, concrete and glass tower hotel located in the middle of Bang Krajao. Here we make a coffee stop (on own expense). At the cafe you can sit and enjoy the terraces, with excellent views over the treetops to the river and in the far distance, Bangkok's skyline.

Stop At: Maha Devalaya Hindu Temple, surrounded by jungle palms, a colorful statue of the god Ganesha can be found in the only Hindu temple on Bang Kachao. A huge Ganesha (elephant god).

Stop At: Bang Nam Phueng Floating Market

*On weekends, the tour also includes a visit to the local Bang Nam Phueng Floating Market. Open on weekends, it is one of the biggest markets to visit around Bangkok. There are many places try out a variety of snacks and desserts as you stroll from stall to stall.

Stop At: Bang Kachao. We stop in at a local restaurant to eat authentic and delicious Thai food.

*Menu: Stir fried chicken in basil leaves, sweat sour pork, thai-style omelet, mixed vegetables in oyster sauce & Tom Yam Soup. *Vegetarian meal is available too.

After lunch we head back to the river and do the boat crossing where our car will take you back to your hotel.

Day 04: Bangkok – Ayutthaya Bicycle Tour Join-In – Bang Pa-In Summer Palace

Breakfast at the hotel.

Pick you up at your Bangkok Hotel 08:00 AM and transfer approximate an hour to explorer Ayutthaya City & it's ruin. To truly appreciate the history in Thailand, no holiday would be complete without a visit to Ayutthaya. This historic city was the second capital of the Kingdom of Siam, there are 34 kings to govern the territory until the end of it by an invasion of the nearby territory in 2310 B.E. It results in Ayutthaya Empire has stayed long about 417 years and a prosperous international trading port, from 1350 until razed by the Burmese in 1767. The ruins of the old city now form the Ayutthaya Historical Park, an archaeological site that contains palaces, Buddhist temples, monasteries and statues.

During our Ayutthaya bicycle excursion, you will get a good impression of the once mighty capital of Siam. Our first stop is at Pom Phet or "Diamond Fortress", one of the sixteen fortresses along the city walls of Ayutthaya. Although partially destroyed, the fort still conveys what must have been ancient travelers first impressions of the Kingdom of Siam. We continue our Ayutthaya bicycle adventure and cycle through local neighborhoods and pass so-called "Roti Road". Dozens of vendors offer bags of the colorful "Roti Sai Mai", one of the most famous Thai desserts in Ayutthaya – threads of twirled palm sugar wrapped in a round unleavened bread.

We cycle through the quiet Somdet Phra Srinakarinda Park to Chedi Phra Si Suriyothai, a memorial for the first heroine in Thai history, and make a short photo stop here. Then we ride further along the river and observe the daily life of the local people living on the river banks. We stop at a Muslim community where they make handicraft woven wind mobiles from palm leaves in the shape of a carp, "Pla Tapian Bai Lan".

The tour brings us then to the world-renowned Ayutthaya Historical Park, an UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1991. Here we see the ruins of the old temples. We stop at Wat Phra Sri Sanphet which was the most important temple of Ayutthaya and situated within the Royal Palace grounds. The next stop is at Wat Mahathat, best known for its photogenic Buddha's head entwined within the roots of a tree. It is one of the most recognizable images from Thailand and can be found on many post cards and travel books.

We continue our Ayutthaya bicycle ride to "Chao Phrom Market" and walk with our bicycle over the market. This busy market has been around since Ayutthaya was the capital of Siam. It houses a large concentration of amulet shops, food stalls and vendors selling all kinds of wares. We take a ferry back to cross the Pasak river and within a few minutes we are back at our office where the tour ends.

During the trip we make regular stops for sightseeing and to provide you with drinking water/soft drink and a Thai snack.*

Anyone able to ride a bicycle can join this Ayutthaya bicycle excursion as it is designed to be enjoyable, educational and fun and is not too demanding on the legs!*

As you will visit ancient temples you are expected to dress respectfully. We recommend you to wear longer shorts (knees covered) and to have your shoulders covered when we enter the temples.*

Lunch is at a local restaurant.

After lunch, drive to Bangkok. Enroute visit Bang Pa-In Summer Palace. The site was first used by the royal court as a summer retreat in the 17th century. However, the Palace was destroyed with the fall of Kingdom of Ayutthaya and was restored by King Rama IV in the mid-19th century. Most of the buildings that exist today date from the reign of King Rama V, who regularly spent his summers there. The structures represent a variety of architectural styles, set in a large park around ponds and waterways.

Koh Yao Noi Island is situated in the Bay of Phang Nga in Southern Thailand and even though the island is only a one-hour boat ride from Phuket. There are no loud bars, no high-rise hotels in Koh Yao Noi island, just a handful of bungalows overlooking the Andaman Sea. Not only is this island affordable, it's an untouched paradise. The traditional way of life on Koh Yao Noi Island has remained virtually unchanged. The main road snakes through rice paddies, fishing villages and plenty of nice and quiet beaches. The best way to explore it is on two wheels.

07.45-8.00am Pick you up from your hotel in Phuket. Head to the start point. Join the boat with local people to Koh Yao Noi Island.

Arrival at Koh Yao Noi Island. Get your bicycle, trip briefing and start your morning ride along south of island Visit local villages, market, fisherman village, rubber plantation, palm oil plantation, pristine beaches which also provide a spectacular view of the islands. Along the way we will stop at local shop for snacks and refreshment. During the ride our guide (our guide are being trained and with certificated approved by The Tourism Authority of Thailand) will make some interesting stops for photos taking, the guide will give you the finer details and its area.

Lunch at the restaurant, we provide Thai food and fresh seafood lunch for you. if you are none fish eater or vegetarian do not worry, our chef will prepare lunch for you. (we do not do picnic lunch)

After lunch: Enjoy quiet beach, swimming and relaxing then follow by afternoon bike riding, mostly on the paved road, pass by pristine beaches, village road, seeing nice scenery of Phang-Nga Bay. (swimming depends on whether condition high tide-low tide)

16.00 Departure by Speedboat from Koh Yao Noi Island to Phuket. Drop off 17.30-18.30 at your hotel.

RECOMMEND OPTIONAL TOUR :

FULL DAY PHANG NGA BAY SEA KAYAK – HONG BY STARLIGHT

Join-In Service / Time: 11:30 - 21:30 hrs.

Enjoy an afternoon of sea cave exploring literally inside Phang Nga Bay’s marine geology, – including the caves and hidden lagoons. Great nature and wildlife surround you.

Entry Trip starts mid-day to avoid the crowds, customized transfers included. Don’t eat lunch – we serve you on board of our comfortable support boat. After lunch, a professional guide paddles you through Phang Nga Bay’s “Tidal Nape Sea Caves” in our custom designed kayaks hand-made in Oregon by SOTAR, the World’s premier white water raft manufacturer. The unique experience is dramatic, but Caveman’s SOTAR custom kayaks are specially designed for your trip. We’ve never capsized, punctured or had an accident. After a detailed briefing, your professional guide paddles you and your partner through “Tidal Nape” Sea Caves literally inside Phang Nga Bay’s marine limestone karstic islands into “Hong”(Thai for “Room”). The hidden cliff-lined lagoons are populated with macaques, water monitors, kingfishers, mudskippers, egrets, Sea Eagles and Brahminy Kites. We finish after dark by floating your own self-made flower “Kratong” in a spiritual and spectacular Natural light show. Eating our delicious seafood-vegan buffet on the trip back, you return to the pier two hours after sunset.
